S.J. VAZIFDAR, JJ.
DATED : 4TH APRIL, 2005.

P.C. :

. We have heard the parties.

2. By this Petition, the Petitioners are seeking to take action against the Respondents for criminal contempt. The only allegation is that Notice of Motion was heard by this Court on 6th and 7th December, 2004 and the orders were reserved.

Respondent Nos.1 to 4, however, published a public notice in Indian Express dated 18.12.2004 in spite of the fact that the matter was sub-judice and the order was reserved by the learned single Judge. On behalf of Respondent Nos.1 to 4, it is pointed out that what is stated in the Notice is based on the facts and the contents of the affidavit are fully supported by record. The learned single Judge has taken no action on this notice and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the view that this is not a fit case for taking action under the Contempt of Courts Act. Petition is dismissed.
